Householders offered option to pay Property Tax weekly

· Omnivend kiosks allow homeowners to pay at their own pace

HOUSE HOLDERS are being offered a way of easing the pain of the property tax by paying the bill in weekly instalments through a nationwide network of kiosks.

The service is being offered in more than 250 high footfall retail stores across Ireland by Omnivend, an Irish technology company that allows customers payment options through the next generation of multi-vend kiosks

Omnivend kiosks will allow householders to pay as little as one euro at a time off the Local Property Tax (LPT), budgeting repayments at a rate that suits them. Omnivend kiosks already offer payment options for phone and toll tag top ups, international calling cards and private refuse company yearly charges.

Not only are they convenient and flexible, Omnivend's kiosks are also the cheapest way to pay the property tax by instalments, according to Money Guide Ireland.

"Omnivend kiosks will be the cheapest option for weekly instalments.....They will charge just 4% of the payment amount - so they will be the cheapest option for anyone wanting to pay weekly..... A fee of just 7 cent will be applied to a Property Tax payment of €1.73 a week - or €3.50 over a full year."

This new service is a self service payment option which is anonymous and quick. Omnivend has been approved to take the payments by the Revenue Commissioners.

Omnivend's Managing Director Fiona Dowd says adding the ability to pay the property tax through the nationwide network of kiosks is a natural extension to the company's customer first approach.

"Paying the property tax through our Omnivend kiosk is an additional service to the phone top ups, international calling cards and toll tag top ups we already offer. Using the service couldn't be simpler, you can pay as little or as much as you like as often as you like until you've paid in full.

"We're encouraging home owners to choose the Option 5, Cash Payments when they're returning the Local Property Tax form. This allows you to pay what you want, when you want, weekly or monthly. Omnivend; your way to pay.

"At the end of each transaction you receive a receipt for your payment which will also be your proof of payment."

For further convenience customers can apply for an Omnivend Local Property Tax payment card at the kiosk, which they keep on their key ring or in their wallet to facilitate easier payments. Customers can then call the freephone number 1800 46 66 64 to get details of their Omnivend LPT transaction history.
